

Privacy Policy

The data collected through the application will be included in a file for which World Dukes S.L. for the management of the services of the application and commercial communications on the services and products of it, including by electronic means such as email and SMS.

The user recognize that the purpose of the application is to contact different users participating in each of the events, as well as to enable them to send and receive communications between them through the application, being World Dukes S.L. incorporating this information is their files.

In this sense, the user, unless otherwise stated by marking the box provided in the form, consents to the sending of commercial communications of products and services related to the application and the events that are organized through it.

The user guarantees the veracity and accuracy of the personal data inserted by him, and will be solely responsible for the manifestations that he makes that are false, inaccurate, or misleading.

At the time of completing the registration, users will make public the following data for the rest of users of the application: username and gender. In addition, at the time of editing your profile may include name and short description (data that will be public) as well as date of birth (data that will be public optional).

World Dukes will request the prior express consent of the user in case of using the data provided by the user for a purpose other than to offer the indicated services.

The user may exercise his rights of access, rectification, cancellation and opposition by contacting World Dukes SL by sending an e-mail to info@ananapp.eu, or by means of a written and signed request addressed to Censal Street number 6, low floor 4, Villajoyosa, Alicante, identifying your request as "DATA PROTECTION".